

At spacings up to this position a lower velocity is indicated because the path length increases more as the spacing increases

At this spacing a higher velocity is indicated because the path length increases less as the spacing is increased

